

Institutions Teaching Japanese in the UK

This list features institutions in the UK that teach Japanese outside of the primary and secondary sector (e.g., language schools, evening classes, adult education, in-house training, public lectures etc.). There is also a list on the back page of nursery schools and Saturday schools that cater to mother-tongue level Japanese-speaking children. Please note: The Japan Foundation has no proprietary interest in any of the organisations mentioned and inclusion on the list does not constitute a recommendation, nor does the list claim to be exhaustive. For a list of primary and secondary schools teaching Japanese, please see our online List of Schools Teaching Japanese at www.jpf.org.uk/language.

* = Universities offering Japanese as a degree course
