What the Judges thought...

- This website was like a treasure chest, each time we looked at it, we delved deeper to find more information!
- The activities listed are easy to adapt by other teachers to use in their lessons
- Nice mix of language and cultural activities
- Excellent students contributions including their work, photos, drawings and blog posts
- Good, clear design and range of media
- The website is a collaborative project by students who are a credit to the school!

What the Judges thought...

- This website is packed with fantastic, original ideas.
- Excellent resources for other children or teachers to use – this is a good reference for other Primary schools, and we hope many schools will use these ideas
- It is interactive, uses bright colours and is easy to navigate
- It was great to see so many children contribute to the project!
- We could spend hours watching the brilliant Kamishibai videos!

What the Judges thought...

- This website is very educational, original yet easy to use
- We loved the comments from the children as well as the fantastic photos
- The content is very personal and includes their own original projects
- Nice, clean design

Luton Sixth Form College
