Special Talk

Mr Phillip Breen Theatre Director and Playwright

Phillip Breen is a theatre director and playwright. He was born in Liverpool and attended state school in Merseyside before studying Social and Political Sciences at Trinity College, Cambridge. He trained under Terry Hands at Clwyd Theatre Cymru. He is an Associate Artist of the Royal Shakespeare Company.

Phillip has directed over 60 professional productions, all over the UK: at the Citizens Theatre, the Royal Shakespeare Company, Clwyd Theatre Cymru, and at Theatre Cocoon Tokyo, at the invitation of Yukio Ninagawa. He has directed off-Broadway, as well as in the West End of London. His work has played all over the UK, Tokyo, Kyoto, Osaka, New York, Los Angeles, the Sydney International Theatre Festival, Adelaide, Canberra, Dubai, and throughout the streets of Assisi.

Phillip's eclectic range of work encompasses opera, theatre, comedy, musicals, jazz cabaret, large-scale community theatre projects, new works and classics. He has also regularly collaborated with Vivienne Westwood, for whom he directed and co-devised Homo Loquax, her London Fashion Week show in 2019. Phillip directed Shinobu Otake, Tadayoshi Ohkura and Yosuke Sugino in Long Day's Journey Into Night, and in 2023 directed Rie Miyazawa in his adaptation of Anna Karenina.

As a writer Phillip has written adaptations of Tender is the Night by F. Scott Fitzgerald, Crime and Punishment by Dostoevsky, Anna Karenina by Leo Tolstoy, Lady Chatterley's Lover by DH Lawrence, Rooftoppers by Katherine Rundell, and an adaptation of Red Or Dead by David Peace for Liverpool Everyman and Playhouse.

Vision for 2036
Fulfilment
Through Work

This core principle is embodied in the "Spirit of Three Loves" that has been at the heart of Ricoh's business since the company was established in 1936.

We truly understand how people, workplaces, and workflows are interconnected.

We transform work to release people from the tedium of repetitive tasks so they can better communicate their thoughts and unleash their creativity and potential.

Ricoh wants to enable people to derive satisfaction and accomplishment through what they can achieve.
